

INTERVIEW PROMPTS

The prompts below will help you to practice answering questions, get comfortable telling your story, and feel more confident in interviews.

- I'm preparing for an interview. Based on the following job/internship description, provide possible interview questions I might be asked. Include both behavioral and general interview questions. [Insert Job/Internship Description].
- [Follow Up Prompt] Based on this job/internship description, what skills, attributes, and previous experiences should I highlight in my interview? [Insert Job/Internship Description].
- Help me formulate STAR (Situation, Task, Action, Result) method answers for potential interview questions, drawing from my experiences listed on my résumé. [Insert Résumé].
- Based on this company's website, mission statement, and recent news, what are three to five talking points I could use to show I've done my research?
- Based on this job description [Insert Job Description], what are thoughtful questions I could ask the interviewer to show my genuine interest in the role and the organization?
- I'm not sure how to talk about my strengths in interviews without feeling uncomfortable. Here's my resume:[Insert Résumé]. How can I share my achievements through genuine, engaging examples?

Avoid adding personal or identifying details from your résumé when using these prompts. Focus on skills, experiences, and achievements.

AI can help you brainstorm, but your responses should always reflect your own voice, experiences, and personality.

AI tools should be employed as supplements, not substitutes for the guidance provided by the Newhouse Career Development Center.